

The 2010 El Paisano has been honored by Quill and Scroll with seven National Winners and one Sweepstakes winner (for the best in category) in the Yearbook Excellence Contest. Sweepstakes winners and their schools are each presented with plaques. National winners win Gold Keys. While the contest only allows one student's name on the submission form, several were involved in many of the winning entries. Here are the categories and the names of the students primarily responsible for the work:
